

Grade 4 EVS Worksheet:3 (Difficulty Level:Advance)

Name: _____

Date: _____

Section A: Multiple Choice Questions (MCQs)

- Which of the following is NOT a purpose of heritage buildings? a) Preserving history
b) Hosting cultural events
c) Destroying old traditions
d) Attracting tourists
 - Which of these is an example of a monument? a) A shopping mall
b) The Taj Mahal
c) A sports stadium
d) A school building
 - What do we call the process of repairing and protecting heritage buildings? a) Construction
b) Demolition
c) Restoration
d) Decoration
 - Which material is commonly used in ancient monuments? a) Plastic
b) Concrete
c) Marble
d) Glass
 - Why is it important to protect heritage buildings? a) To increase traffic
b) To learn about history
c) To replace modern buildings
d) To stop tourism
-

Section B: Fill in the Blanks

- The _____ is a famous monument located in Agra, India.

- Heritage buildings tell us about our _____ and culture.
 - _____ is the capital city that is home to Red Fort in India.
 - The Great Wall of China was built to protect the country from _____.
 - A _____ is a tall structure that is built to remember a person or event.
-

Section C: Match the Columns

Column A	Column B
1. Pyramids of Giza	a) France
2. Eiffel Tower	b) Egypt
3. Statue of Liberty	c) Italy
4. Colosseum	d) USA
5. Machu Picchu	e) Peru

Section D: Short Answer Questions

- Name any three heritage buildings or monuments you have studied and explain why they are important.
 - How do heritage buildings help us connect with the past?
 - What challenges do we face in preserving monuments? Suggest two solutions.
-

Section E: Creative Activity

Design Your Own Monument:

- Imagine you are building a new monument for your city. Draw a sketch of it in the space below.
- Write a short paragraph explaining the purpose of your monument and the materials you will use.

(Space for drawing)

—BE CHAMPION—