

Grade 4 Science Worksheet:2 (DifficultyLevel: Easy)

Name: _____

Date: _____

Section A: Fill in the Blanks

1. Animals that eat only meat are called _____.
 2. A parrot uses its _____ beak to crack open nuts and seeds.
 3. Carnivores have _____ teeth to tear the flesh of their prey.
 4. Animals like bears that eat both plants and animals are called _____.
 5. A butterfly uses its _____ to suck nectar from flowers.
-

Section B: Match the Animals to Their Food Sources

For each animal, write the food source it is most adapted to eat:

1. Hawk

 2. Deer

 3. Antelope

 4. Shark

 5. Goat

-

Section C: Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main adaptation of a snake for eating its prey?
 - a) Sharp claws
 - b) Strong jaws that dislocate
 - c) Curved beak
 - d) Sticky tongue
2. Herbivores usually have:
 - a) Flat teeth for grinding plants
 - b) Sharp teeth for tearing meat
 - c) Both flat and sharp teeth
 - d) Long, sticky tongues

3. Which of these animals uses its tongue to feed?
 - a) Frog
 - b) Lion
 - c) Elephant
 - d) Whale
 4. Carnivores like lions and tigers have:
 - a) Long beaks
 - b) Sharp claws and teeth
 - c) Long necks
 - d) Sticky tongues
 5. Animals that eat plants and meat are called:
 - a) Carnivores
 - b) Herbivores
 - c) Omnivores
 - d) Scavengers
-

Section D: Short Answer Questions

1. How does the beak of a woodpecker help it find food?
2. What do omnivores eat, and give one example?
3. Name one animal with flat teeth and explain its feeding habit.
4. Why do carnivores need sharp claws and teeth?
5. How does an elephant use its trunk to eat?